

Non-Gratuitous Violence

May Be Identified by the Following:

- Contributes to the overall story.
- Is used sparingly.
- Might teach a lesson or define the “bad guy.”
- Shows historical accuracy.
- Is there for its emotional effect on a scene.
- Portrays a negative behavior that is addressed and corrected within the story.
- Is in a program more suitable for an older child.
- Is shown with real consequences or correction. .